

Call for Nominations

2020 CBAA Emerging Educator Teaching Award

By honoring outstanding educators, the CBAA reaffirms its mission to support the teaching of book arts at the college and university level. With this award, the CBAA seeks to recognize an individual whose accomplishments continue to have a significant impact on the academic pursuit of book art. The Emerging Educator Teaching Award is granted to an emerging educator who has contributed significantly to the pedagogical development of the field by recognized teaching excellence, demonstrated through innovative teaching practices, high quality student work, papers or presentations at national conferences, and/or other substantial contributions to the education of book artists and the advancement of the field.

Eligibility:

- Nomination by CBAA member (An educator may self-nominate, but the required nomination materials are the same for self-nominations.)
- Currently teaching full- or part-time at an accredited undergraduate or graduate institution
- Must be a member of CBAA
- Completed studies within the last twelve years or began teaching within the past seven years
- Current members of the CBAA board or the Awards Committee are not eligible for consideration.

Required from the nominator:

- Statement explaining why you are nominating this person for the award, citing specific examples of their contributions to the field, as described above.
- Submit Nomination Statements via Submittable at <https://cbaarregional.submittable.com/submit/138686/for-nominators-2020-cbaa-emerging-educator-award> Nominators, please upload nomination statements prior to nominees' submission of materials.*

Required from the nominee:

- one letter from a professional colleague or college administrator
- one letter from a former student
- current CV, including honors, grants, exhibitions, publications, student accomplishments
- course syllabi
- (optional) any other evidence/documentation that provides a greater understanding of the nominee's work, pedagogy, and practice
- Submit nomination materials via Submittable at <https://cbaarregional.submittable.com/submit/138383/for-nominees-2020-cbaa-emerging-educator-award>

Award determinations & deadlines:

- Award determinations will be made by the CBAA Board and announced at the CBAA Biennial Conference in January 2020 in New Orleans, LA.
- Award Amount: $1,000 (awardee is responsible for conference attendance expenses, including travel, registration, and lodging)
- Nomination Materials Deadline: June 15, 2019
- Questions: awards@collegebookart.org